

Online tool for training

AN online tool to provide farmers with access to training and book onto workshops from anywhere with internet access has been launched by FarmSkills.

Farmer Portal allows users to store training records, print certificates and get recommendations for future workshops and events in the local area, as well as interacting with vets and trainers.

*Details on www.farmskills.co.uk,
or 01765 608 489.*